About Our K Square

Having been involved in the educational sector for more than two decades, we have extensive knowledge and experience in it. In 2021, we founded K Square Edutainment to provide comprehensive support to schools. Our organization specializes in catering to various educational requirements, including the provision of textbooks, cutting-edge AI, and robotics educational materials, as well as an extensive range of preschool play items for both indoor and outdoor settings. Additionally, we offer a diverse array of school essentials such as uniforms, shoes, and accessories, all while implementing tailored developmental programs. The overarching mission of the company is to facilitate technology-enabled learning experiences for students through collaborative partnerships with schools.

Riya: I recently purchased these Alforna's coconut chips for my kids, and they are an absolute hit! The natural sweetness of the coconut makes them a healthier alternative to regular chips. The kids love the crunchy texture, and I love that they're enjoying a snack that's both delicious and nutritious.

Anush: These coconut chips have become my go-to healthy snack for daily cravings! The crispy texture satisfies my need for something crunchy, and the natural sweetness of the coconut makes them an ideal guilt-free treat. I love that I can indulge in a delicious snack without compromising on health. Highly recommended for anyone looking for a tasty and wholesome option to curb those daily cravings.
